ABOUT

Computer Engineering student from Thadomal Shahani Engineering College and a Full Stack Developer. My core expertise is in the stacks of Next.js, TypeScript, Prisma, and Clerk, along with experience in MERN and PERN (with Prisma) stacks. Obsessed with building and breaking cool stuff on the internet, exploring AI SDKs to create intelligent, automation-driven agents, and solving real-world problems. A curious and enthusiastic learner driven by innovation and experimentation.
